VOLUME 1 JULY 2025 ISSUE 80

Here comes July and with it some fireworks, some hot and muggy weather, and maybe a steep air conditioning bill. If you get by with a fan and open windows, you have my deep respect! Earlier in June, the US Army celebrated its 250th anniversary. I had to think about that for a minute, but yes, it makes sense. The Army predates the founding of the nation, and that means next year we are celebrating our nation's 250th anniversary. In 1976, our nation celebrated its bicentennial, which is fairly easy to say. What is a 250th anniversary? It's a semi sesquicentennial, which doesn't exactly roll off the tongue, so the organizers have wisely branded it America 250.

I was two years old in 1976, so I'd be lying if I told you that I remember the bicentennial. Here is what I do know. In 1976, the nation was healing from a presidential scandal, a recession, a lengthy war, and was getting ready for change. So I'm sure that when many lit their sparklers in 1976, they wondered if America's best days were behind us. Where do we go from here?

I think it's natural to ask that every July 4th. To ask those questions like, "Are we as a nation who we should be?" The answer, of course, is "not yet." We are still a young nation and "the great experiment." We are newborns in comparison to Egypt, China, Japan, or India, which were founded before the first advent of Christ. I do not know what the future holds, but I do know these things.

We are unique in several ways. We are not just one nation but a nation of states, each with their own character, governance, and quirks. We have resources that other nations don't have, and even though we are a young nation, we have responsibilities and riches that are unprecedented. I always marvel at young athletes, and I think our nation is kind of like one of them. There are some young athletes with gifts and riches beyond reason, and while that's enviable, it's also a huge challenge and there are stumbles along the way. I think our nation is still learning how to adapt and manage those blessings and responsibilities.

So this July 4th, and as we knock on the doorstep of 250 years, we wonder about our place in the world and what the future holds. Sometimes we yearn for simpler or better days than what we have now. I would argue this: our strife is not always a sign of something bad. It can be a sign of growth from a still young nation. We are still learning how to do this, and while we lament where we've fallen short as well as lament what we've yet to achieve, it's important to remember that experiments come with failures as well as successes. So this 4th of July, I invite you to thank God for all things and to celebrate the fact that we've been given such great blessings and ask for wisdom as we continue to go through these growth spurts. I love the fact that we have diverse opinions, people, ideas, and movements. It sure is messy, but it gives us a chance to grow, change, and to hopefully move toward a more perfect union.

Blessings to you,
Pastor Jeremy Wolfe

United Methodist Church in Monona will have a one-day, all day VBS/Bible Camp Day on Wednesday July 23rd from 9 AM to 4 PM. We're inviting kids who've completed Kindg thru 6th grades to participate.

According to what others have said we as the host don't do a lot of the hands-on work/teaching with the kids? So I'm wondering how many folks are available to help with the day? We'll need teachers, crafters, lunch preparers/servers and ??? As far as the curriculum, I've asked the Christian Ed. coordinator up in Waukon if we can use her day long program about the life of Moses.

2025 July Church Update

From Orphanage to Expansive Outreach The Journey of Lutheran Services in Iowa

As we celebrate 160 years of ministry through Lutheran Services in Iowa, we are filled with gratitude, for the lives changed, the communities strengthened, and the faithful support that has sustained this work for generations.

What began as a small orphanage has grown into a statewide mission of compassion and care. The story of Lutheran Services in Iowa (LSI) is one of transformation, deeply rooted in the Lutheran commitment to serve our neighbors in need.

1864: A Humble Beginning

LSI's story starts with the opening of the Lutheran Children's Home in 1864. In 1900, the home relocated to Waverly and was renamed the Bremwood Children's Home, becoming a place of refuge for countless children over the years.

1939–1945: Expanding the Mission

The mission widened in 1939 with the founding of the Lutheran Welfare Society of Iowa. By 1945, this ministry reached across the state, with offices in Council Bluffs, Des Moines, Iowa City, and Sioux City—bringing help and hope to more Iowans.

1963: A New Name, Broader Services

In 1963, the organization became Lutheran Social Services (LSS). Its ministries grew to include child welfare, foster care, and chaplaincy services—touching more lives and deepening its commitment to families.

2003: Uniting in Purpose

A major milestone came in 2003, when LSS merged with the Bremwood Children's Home, creating the organization we know today: Lutheran Services in Iowa (LSI). While Bremwood ceased functioning as a children's home, it became a residential treatment facility for youth serving faithfully until 2024.

2024: A Shift in Focus

Due to rising operational costs, LSI discontinued residential services in Waverly in 2024. However, the spirit of care lives on, LSI continues to provide a variety of services in the Waverly area and throughout Iowa.

A Mission That Grows with Grace

"We have evolved significantly from an orphanage that believed in being there for children who were in need to, now, a multi service Lutheran mission organization," says our President & CEO Renee Hardman.

Today, LSI serves Iowans through Early Childhood, Foster Care & Adoption, Global Greens, Mental Health, Services for People with Disabilities, Immigrant & Refugee Services.
